

MINISTER SHAYNA FOSTER

PRESIDENT, GENERATION NOW

SHAYNA FOSTER is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who combines her artistic talents with her passion for God and His people. She has been called by God for a special mission, and she humbly embraces her role in His plan. She received her license to preach at the Great Concord Baptist Church in Baltimore in November 2009, under the mentorship of her pastor, Rev. Dr. Matthew L. Jones. Since then, she has been blessed to share her gifts of preaching and singing at various churches and conferences in the DMV area.

Shayna has showcased her talents in preaching and singing at various venues, such as the Wendell Whalum Concert at Hampton University's Ministers' Conference 2018. She has been a Christian education instructor at different levels, and a youth leader and revivalist. Shayna has also imparted her knowledge and skills as a 2nd grade teacher at Mount Pleasant Christian School in Baltimore and currently as the Department Head and 11th grade teacher at Cristo Rey Jesuit High School in Baltimore.

Shayna gives all the glory to God for the marvelous things He has done in her life. She currently serves as the Director of Youth Ministries at Concord Baptist Church and as the President of Generation NOW, UBMC's ministry to empower and equip youth and young adults.

Shayna strives to live out her favorite scripture, Proverbs 31:30-31.

"Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates."

And there is still so much work to do, so she lives to serve!
